PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Second-year BCA (Data Science) student seeking a Data Analyst Internship. Hands-on project experience using Python, SQL, Pandas and NumPy for data cleaning, ETL workflows, relational database design and exploratory analysis. Built Flask-based applications for data quality validation and analytics, with automated testing using Pytest.

TECHNICAL SKILLS

Programming: Python, C++, JavaScript | Web: Flask, HTML5, CSS3
Data Analysis: Pandas, NumPy, Matplotlib, data cleaning, data visualization, statistics
Databases: MySQL, Oracle SQL, SQLite | Tools: Microsoft Excel, Power BI (Basic), Git, GitHub, VS Code
Core Knowledge: Data analysis, ETL workflows, relational database design, automated testing

PROJECTS

Data Quality Checker | Python, Pandas, NumPy, SQLite, Flask | github.com/IshanBiswas2006/Data-Quality-Checker

- Developed a Flask-based application to analyze, validate and clean CSV datasets.
- Implemented checks for missing values, duplicate records, data-type inconsistencies and validation-rule violations.
- Built non-destructive cleaning operations with before-and-after comparisons and audit tracking.
- Integrated data visualizations, user authentication, cleaned-CSV export and automated tests using Pytest.

Netflix Data Engine | Python, SQL, MySQL, Pandas, Flask | github.com/IshanBiswas2006/netflix-data-engine

- Built an end-to-end analytics pipeline to process and analyze 6,234 Netflix movie and TV-show records.
- Performed data cleaning, transformation and ETL using Python and Pandas; designed a normalized 3NF MySQL schema.
- Created analytical SQL queries and a Flask analytics platform with KPIs, exploratory analysis and eight visualizations.
- Analyzed content distribution, genres, production countries, maturity ratings and runtime trends; added Pytest coverage.
